

Lifeline is a specialist cat-fostering service run by Cats Protection.

Supporting survivors and their cats to find freedom from domestic abuse.

The service currently operates in the South East (London, Hertfordshire, Bedfordshire, Berkshire, Buckinghamshire, Essex, Kent, Sussex and Surrey), Yorkshire, East Anglia, the Midlands, Scotland and Wales.

If you live outside of these areas, get in touch with your nearest team and they will chat through your options with you.

Fundraising
in aid of

